THE CHANGES OF EDITOR HEARST

at is Believed That He May Be Elected Mayor of New

BAR HIM OUT OF CAUCUS

This May Be Done Because of the Platform He is Running Upon.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 16.-Two bits of gossip, concerning William R. Hearst, three pieces, in fact, are current in Washington to-day. The first is that there is a chance, and a very good one, that he will be elected to the mayoralty of New York city, Edgar Partless, a Baltimore man, who has just been spending some time in New York, to-6ay, said the lowest estimate which Tammany placed on the vote which Mr. Hearst would receive as the candidate of the Municipal League, was 80,000, He met one or two Tammany men who placed the vote as high as 15,000.

Mr. Partlett is a Democrat and wants to see Mayor McClellan ro-elected, but he believes that if Mr. Hreart should araw eighty thousand votes from the Democrats, and his support will come largely from that party, though the So-cialists are expected to furnish the bulk of his support, and if the Republican candidate should poll anything like a normal vote, Hearts would stand a chance

For National Chairman.

The second rumor concerning Mr. Blearst, is that he will be a candidate for the position of chairman of the Democratic National Congressional Committee this year. The report that Judge James Griggs, of Georgia, commonly known as "Grim Jiggs," would be a candidate es "Grim Jiggs," would be a candidate egain, was incorrect, it seems, though he has not formally disavowed his inten-tion of running. It is said that Judge Griggs and some other of Mr. Hearst's friends in Congress will urge the New York editor for the position. The third and last piece of gossip con-First third that have been deadly been and the west paper proprietor, is that some Democrats have determined to contest his right to a seat in the Democratic caucus this winter. It is pointed out that he is running for the office of Mayor of New York on a platform opposed to any Democratic platform ever adopted, and in opposition to a regular Democratic nomination. The principles of the Municipa League, whose candidate he is said to be, are decidedly socialistic, and it is ursed that to allow Mr. Hearst to retain his seat in the Democratic caucus of the House would be to endorse the principles or the Socialist party. It is pretty well settled that an effort will be made to keep Mr. Hearst out of the caucus. If made the chances are that will be successful. He is not popular among his colleagues. of the Socialist party. It is pretty well

His Unpopularity.

The unpopularity of Mr. Hearst is evidenced by the alleged fact that Representative John Sharp Williams will appoint Representative Sullivan to a place on the ways and Means Committee this winter, or will give him a position on the Ways and Means Committee. Representative Sullivan is the man with whom Mr. Hearst had the flerce encounter on the floor of the House last winter. Mr. Hearst had the flerce encounter on the floor of the House last winter. Mr. Hearst brought out the fact that Sulliyan and his father had been indicted for manslaughter, having killed dicted for manslaughter, having killed a man in the saloon attached to ther hotel which they ran in Cambridge. Sut-llyan's reply to the attack appeared to satisfy the majority of the members of the House, Democrats and Republicans, that he got the better of the fight. Whather Mr. Hearstig right to a sont that he got the better of the fight.

Whether Mr. Hearst's right to a seat in the cancus be questioned or not, the mere fact that there is talk of such action indicates that he cannot be a strong candidate for the place of Democratic congressional chairman. No name save that of Representative Flood's is scriously mentioned in connection with the position. The indications are that he will win it with ease.

Representative Hay, of Virginia, is in the city to-day. Mr. Hay is the chair-gran of the Democratic caucus, but has announced that he will not again serve in that capacity. It is understood that Toxas, will Representative Henry, of Texas, will succeed him. Mr. Henry is in the city today.

Another Paper.

There is considerable talk of a new morning paper being established in Washington. The rumor is to the effect that Stilson Hutchins, the well known capitalist, as well known in Richmond as in Washington, and Mr. Scott Bone, who recently resigned the position of managing editor of the Washington Post, a position he had held for many years, will

Colonel W. W. Sale, who will succeed himself in the Senate from the district of Norfolk city and Princess Anne county, is a man of experience in matters pertaining to legislation, having represented his district with conspicuous ability for the past four years.

Colonel Sale is a young man and is a native of Rockbridge county. After graduating in law he settled in Norfolk city to practice, and is now the head of the very prosperous firm of Sale, Mann & Tyler. His partners are Colonel Jaines Mann and Major S. Hoth Tyler, and they are enjoying a herative practice.

Colonel Sale was an aide de camp on the staff of former Governor Tyler, and has had a good deal of connection in one way or another with the military of the State.

Perhaps his greatest legislative triumph was in connection with the bill relating to the Jamestown Exposition, which he managed with great dexterity and success on the floor of the Senate. Colonel Sale is a speaker of rare force and ability and is always capable of taking care of himself in any emergency. Personally, he is a most congenial gentleman, and has hosts of friends, not only in his district, but throuhgout the State.

of a law-maker, having served his city with distinguished ability in the House of Delegates some years ago.

Captain Lassiter comes of one of the most distinguished families in Virginia, members of which have wen glory as soldiers, lawyers, legislators, physicians and literary men, and he himself, though yet a young man, has already distinguished himself as a practitioner at the bar and as a representative of his people in the Legislature.

Nomination in Captain Lassiter's distirct by the Democratic party practically means election, and it is safe to say that he will be a member of the new Senate. He is a brother of Major Francis Rives Lassiter, former congressman from the Fourth District, and is a member of the law firm of Lassiter & Lassiter.

Captain Lassiter is a debater of no mean force and is expected to take a prominent part in the affairs of the Legislature next winter.

NEW YORK, October 16.—Fraud and mismanagement in the conduct of the great life insurance companies of America were discussed yesterday by ministers of the gospel, Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst dealing in general terms and taking a Biblical text to illustrate his argument in his own church, and the Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters and the Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, on the stage of the Harlem Opera. House, holding what might be called a free-for-all discussion. Charges of fraud, theft and betrayal of confidence were made specifically in the Harlem meeting, and Senator Chauncey M. Depew was denounced as a dishonest man. One man who arose from his seat in the auditorium said that if Depew ever came up for any office of honor or profit he would be opposed to the uttermost.

There were at least ten representatives of the New York Life, the Mutual Life and the Equitable in the Opera House audience, who were invited to get up and offer a defense, if they could, of the methods now under investigation by the Armstrong Committee.
